

LAKC Annual Election 2013 Ballot

Please select up to seven candidates. LAKC-YLS invites you to submit your ballot in person at the annual election happy hour on May 29, 2013 at 5:30 p.m. at Snow & Co. (1815 Wyandotte, Kansas City, MO).

Alternatively, you may submit your ballot by e-mail to carly.duvall@dentons.com or by mail to Carly Duvall at Dentons US LLP 4520 Main Street, Suite 1100, Kansas City, Missouri 64111 by 5:00 p.m. on May 29, 2013.

_____ Artur Bagyants

Artur Bagyants graduated from Washburn University in 2012. He is a member of the Johnson County Bar Association and the KCMBA. Artur would like to join the LAKC YLS Board because he has been involved in public service for the majority of his life and would like to continue doing so as a new attorney.

_____ Allison Greenfield

Allison Greenfield is an attorney at the Arnold Law Firm where she practices personal injury and domestic law. She graduated from the University of Tulsa College of Law in 2012. She is currently a member of the KCMBA and a volunteer for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Kansas City. Allison would like to be a member of the LAKC YLS Board of Directors because she would like to donate her time to the community while meeting, socializing and working with young members of the legal community. She believes she would benefit the LAKC YLS Board because she is energetic, motivated and organized.

_____ Jessica McKinney

Jessica is an attorney in Shook Hardy & Bacon's Business Litigation and Corporate Services Department. She graduated from the University of Iowa in 2010. Jessica is a member of the Missouri Bar Association, the Iowa State Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association, the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and Innovative Professionals for Entrepreneurs. Jessica would like to serve on the LAKC Board of Directors so she can coordinate with others in the community to help build a stronger, more vibrant Kansas City.

_____ Kellie Mitchell

Kellie is an attorney at Copilevitz & Canter where she practices in the area of telemarketing, non-profit and First Amendment law. She graduated from the University of Kansas in 2012. Kellie is a member of the KCMBA Media and the Law Committee. In that role she assisted with the planning of the 2013 Media and the Law Seminar, a two-day event that features speakers from around the country on topics such as First Amendment protected speech, privacy invasions and technological advancements. She has also served as a Court Appointed Special Advocate. Kellie would like to serve on the LAKC Board of Directors so that she can get involved in the community outside of her particular area of practice. She finds it fulfilling to help others and she likes that LAKC YLS focuses its efforts on community outreach. She believes she will be a good fit for the Board because LAKC combines her interest of serving others while providing an opportunity to meet like-minded legal professionals in Kansas City.

_____ Margaret Richards

Margaret Richards is an attorney in the Environmental Department at Lathrop & Gage. She graduated from Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 2007. Margaret volunteers as a Guardian ad Litem with Legal Aid's Volunteer Attorney Project. She has also volunteered to judge LAKC YLS' high school mock trial competition. She also provides food at a homeless shelter once per month, ministers to prisoners once per week and volunteers for the KC Symphony. Margaret would like to be a member of the LAKC YLS Board of Directors because she has participated in its programs in the past. She has donated to its "Skippies and Skivvies" campaign and has helped wrap gifts for Santa Snowball. Margaret has also run in, and volunteered at, LAKC's annual 5K.

_____ Molly Walsh

Molly Walsh is an attorney in Stinson Morrison Hecker's Employment/Business practice group. She graduated from the University of Kansas in 2009. Molly recently moved from Wichita where she was a member of the Young Lawyers Section of the Wichita Bar Association and served on the Board of Directors for the Wichita Art Museum. Molly would like to join the LAKC YLS Board in order to meet attorneys in the area and to give back to the community.

_____ Amanda Yoder

Amanda is an attorney in Lathrop & Gage's Corporate Department. She graduated from the University of Missouri in 2011. She participates in a Kansas City Banking Law Lunch Group that meets monthly to discuss certain legal issues affecting area banks. Amanda is also on the Steering Committee for the Young Professionals Board of Legal Aid of Western Missouri and she does pro bono work for Legal Aid through their Volunteer Attorney Project. Amanda also donates her time to many community activities with her church and local women's shelters. Amanda would like to join the LAKC-YLS Board to become more involved in the Kansas City community. She believes LAKC has a great vision in its education of, and service to, the public and young lawyers. These are goals that she personally believes in. Amanda would like to become a board member to help LAKC continue to accomplish these objectives.
